Youth work creative hub

This project aims to provide an opportunity for youth workers, as well as craftsmen, musicians, actors, and artists, to explore how art can be used in youth work. Each participant will design a workshop, which will be showcased during the project at a public event in Luxembourg.

On the Advanced Planning Visit (APV) one participant of each country will physically visit Luxembourg. The goal of the APV (26-29 April) is to prepare workshops, visit the accommodation venue and to go through the logistics altogether.

The project is co-founded by the Erasmus+ program of the European Union.

Participants profile

This study visit is open to 18+ participants youth workers, craftsmen, musicians, actors, and artists that want to explore how to use art in youth work.

English will be the working language of this project, which is why we find it important that each participant has at least basic knowledge of the language.

Good mood, happy faces and positive energy are more than welcomed.

Please inform us in advance if you have participant(s) with handicap or disabilities within your group in order to prioritize them during the selection process.

Erasmus+ is a program that supports young people with disadvantages which is the reason why we strongly encourage their inclusion.

Accommodation

Chalet Géisserei is a scouts center located in the vicinity of Luxembourg city.

The scouts center is maintained by volunteers-members of the scouts federation who do everything in their power to make the accommodation venue flourish. The venue is equipped with advanced garbage selection and we would kindly ask you to stick to it.

The inhabitants in the vicinity value their calm lifestyle, meaning that a quiet and calm ambience in the period 10p.m. - 8a.m. would be expected. Please note that the accommodation venue is not in Luxembourg city, meaning that if the project topic and the youth exchange itself is not your main motivation to visit, you might want to reconsider your participation in this project. However, the program of activities will include a cultural visit of Luxembourg city.

Facilities

Activity/dining room; Professional kitchen; Bathrooms/showers (separated by gender); Shared rooms (separated by gender).

How to get to the accommodation venue?

Once you arrive in Luxembourg, the public transport is free of charge with the sole exception of the 1st class in trains.

For up-to-date information on how to get to the accommodation, you can use the webpage www.mobiliteit.lu or their application called mobiliteit. You can also refer to google maps.

Your destination is 5, rue Munchen-Tesch, Luxembourg.

In the background, there are more food items, including a bowl of yellow corn. The image is partially obscured by a dark, curved shape on the right side.

Food

The food will be prepared and served for you in the accommodation venue. It will be served as a buffet.

There will be three meals and two snacks/coffee breaks provided. We will provide simple 'with/without meat (vegetarian)' dishes. If you have any specific dietary needs/allergies, please let us know in advance.

Travel and reimbursement

The foreseen travel days for the project APV are 26 and 29 April, and for the project are 03 and 11 June. Exceptions/extension of the travel dates may be possible if requested in advance and if a valid reason is provided.

The travel costs will be reimbursed up to the limit of 309€ per participant. All plane tickets must be bought directly via the airline company. The use of any providers must be approved by REACT in advance!

In order to make the reimbursement, we will need all the tickets (originals) including the ones for the way back. It is very important that you keep ALL your travel documents (itineraries, boarding passes, bus/train tickets) and bring them with you on project in a hard copy (paper). They will be used to fill in the travel cost reimbursement form on project. Travel costs will be reimbursed only if you take part in ALL the activities foreseen for the project.

Please note that we strongly encourage the idea of green travel. If you would like to organize your trip in this way, please share this info with your sending organization. Please note that in this case, extra travel days and a reimbursement ceiling of 320€ is eligible.

It is obligatory to confirm with us before buying your tickets!

Health insurance

It is mandatory to obtain a health insurance for the full duration of the project, including the travel days.

If you have a valid EU health card, this covers the basic needs, otherwise a travel insurance is needed.

In both cases, an additional travel insurance is recommended.
